YOUNG VOICES

Have Your Say

WHAT?

A series of consultations across Ireland with young people on youth empowerment and how young people can influence political decision making. These consultations are part of the European Structured Dialogue process which gives young people an opportunity to influence decisions affecting their lives.

Some of the issues that will be discussed include...

- Young people influencing change
- Lowering the voting age
- Young people being politically active
- Education and political participation
- Respecting young people's views
